ORGANIC FIELD DAY August 30th @ 9:AM. West Alexandria Ohio,
Come join us for an organic hands on field day, we will be planting organic corn and soybeans in early august to enable us to be able to cultivate, rotary hoe, tined weed, and run a weed zapper, during the field day. We are hoping to get participation and insights from all as we (weather permitting) go to the field together. We also have an organic corn and soybean plot with multiple varieties from competing organic companies.

There will be speakers from across the US to talk about soil health, biology, carbon, and organic management.

EDITOR's NOTE:

A stack of mail postmarked at the end of May finally arrived last week. If you sent in an ad in May and it's already been sold because of the delay, please let me know and I'll refund it.

Should I include an address with my ad?

For some items such as horses and horse drawn equipment you may want to include an address because there are communities subscribing to this paper who will not use the phone for business. They may write or just show up with a trailer. On the other hand, many people do not list their address for privacy reasons. They don't want strangers showing up unannounced. A name and address is not required in Barnyard Classifieds.

Auctions: Full page ad prices for auctions are 20% off the list price for the rest of this year. With 4,000 copies printed this is a really good price for auction flyers. Another benefit of advertising in Barnyard Classifieds is that readers are paid subscribers. There is no money wasted on copies that get thrown in the trash.

Advertising success is not about the numbers or coverage. It's about what works. This paper is popular by farmers. If you've got an auction coming up, make sure to list it in the Barnyard. Auction price is $140 for a full page Black & White, $196 for color. - James Shirk, Murray KY.
